

University management system

DR .Alaa El Gamry

Agenda:-

- Technologies used
- Project Goal
- How our project help community members ?
- How our project help Students members ?
- How our project help post-Students members ?
- How our project helping lecturer?
- How our project helping university?
- How our project helping university and mangerial system ?
- Smart university as communicative tool

Technologies used :-

- Java standard edition
- Java enterprise edition
- My sql
- Web design (Html-javascript-CSS-xml-bootstrap-Jquery -Ready made program (Dream-waver))
- Android studio

Technologies used(Cont.)

- Our project divide into backend and frontend
- Backend designed by Java SE.
- Front end divided into website and mobile application

Project Goal

- Is Designing smart internal cooperative network for university and also supporting community services.
-

How our project help community members ?

- Our project work as a linkage between outsiders community member to university ?

How?

How our project help community members ?

- Community member can follow the news of university from website
- Community member can follow the events and courses of university .

How our project help community members ?

- Community member is also registering in An events and courses from home easily .
- The project is also providing mobile note work as smart tool which providing the community member by news and events of university

How our project help community members ?

- The website enabling community members to send opinion and objection to university simply .

How our project help Students members ?

- Student can take exams smartly and faster .
- Students can follow lecturer and university instruction online

How our project help Students members ?

- Students can register in their courses online

How our project help post- Students members ?

- Post student can be follow their affairs online such as (their grades and other services )

How our project help post- Students members ?

- Students can be up-to-date with university instruction and advertisements online

How our project helping lecturer?

- Lecturer can use our project as smart tools for preparing and running examination system.
- Lecturer can follow student grades smartly and simply
-

How our project helping lecturer ?

- Lecturer can follow university instructions smartly .
- Lecturer can be work in smart linkage with students .

How our project helping university?

(As cooperative Tool)

- University can create a strong linkage between students and community members .

How our project helping university and mangerial system

- The university is also can manage smartly pre students and post students affairs .
- The system is also work as informative tools by feeding the students by news and instructions smartly .

Smart university as communicative tool

- The system is also work is a linkage with community members since it is also feeding community by news ,events and courses .

conclusion

- The system is also work as a smart ring between university and community members .

Thank you